One half mile from downtown Asheville, this enchanting 1915 bungalow sits perched on a hill with front porch views of the city, the mountains, & fireworks at McCormick field & downtown. Character and charm overflow along with the finest amenities. SubZero glass-front refrigerator, Wolf range, porcelain farmhouse sink. Original windows with custom wooden storms & screens, Hunter Douglas shades. Beautiful hardwood floors & original pocket doors. Two gas fireplaces. Updated bathrooms with Grohe fixtures, Toto toilets, walk-in shower, clawfoot tub & heated floor in master bath. Second bedroom does not have a closet. Two off-street parking spots with lovely gated entry to enclosed courtyard with custom cedar fence, stacked stone walls, fountain, hot tub, in-ground gas grill. Professionally landscaped yard. Short walk to Trader Joe's, City Bakery, GreenLife & Harris Teeter, butcher shop, coffee shops & community pool. You will fall in love with this house. Even more beautiful in person.
